FIELD NOTES

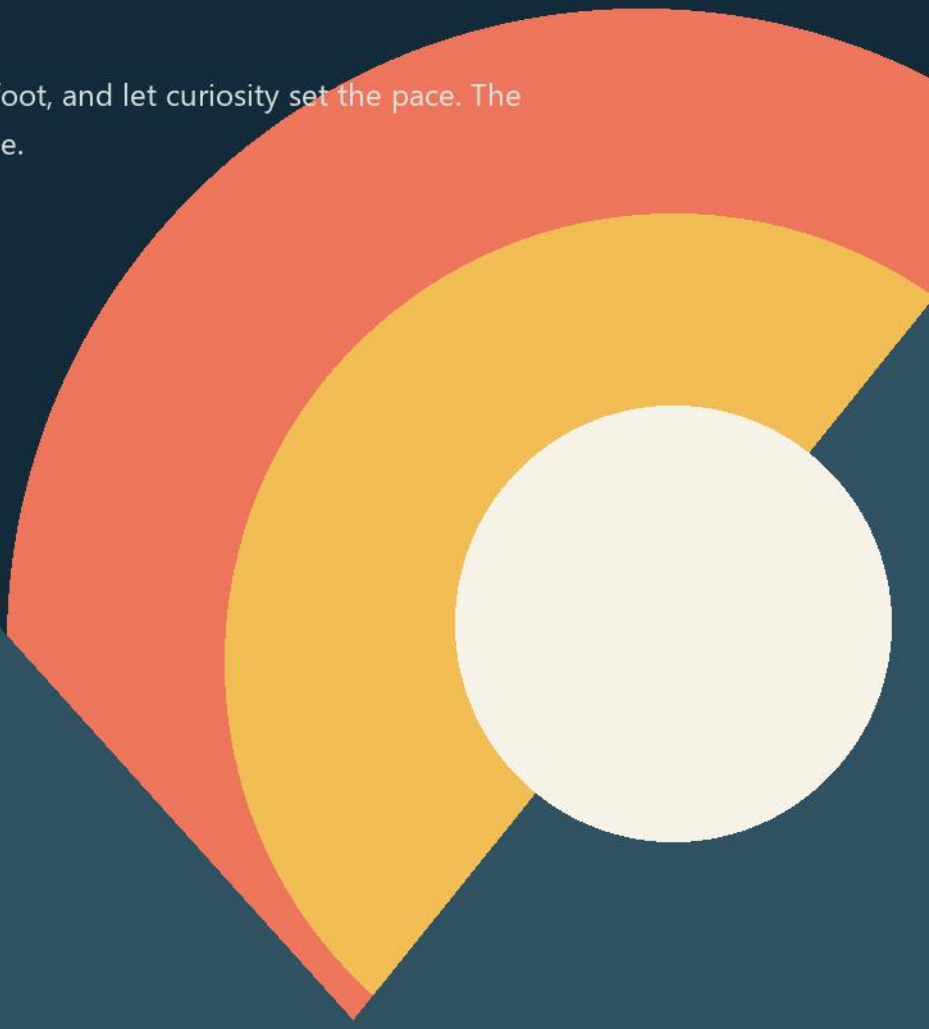

A slower kind of weekend

A guide to small, local discoveries.

01 / ARRIVE

Leave room to wander

Choose one neighbourhood, begin on foot, and let curiosity set the pace. The best plans leave a little space for surprise.

A SIMPLE PLAN

- Choose one local stop.
- Walk a different street.
- Take a mindful pause.
- Share what you discovered.

02 / TASTE

Follow the good things

Look for a seasonal menu, a family-run bakery, or a market stall with a story behind it. Ask what is fresh today.

PULL QUOTE

> “A good day is not measured by how much you fit in, but by what you notice.”

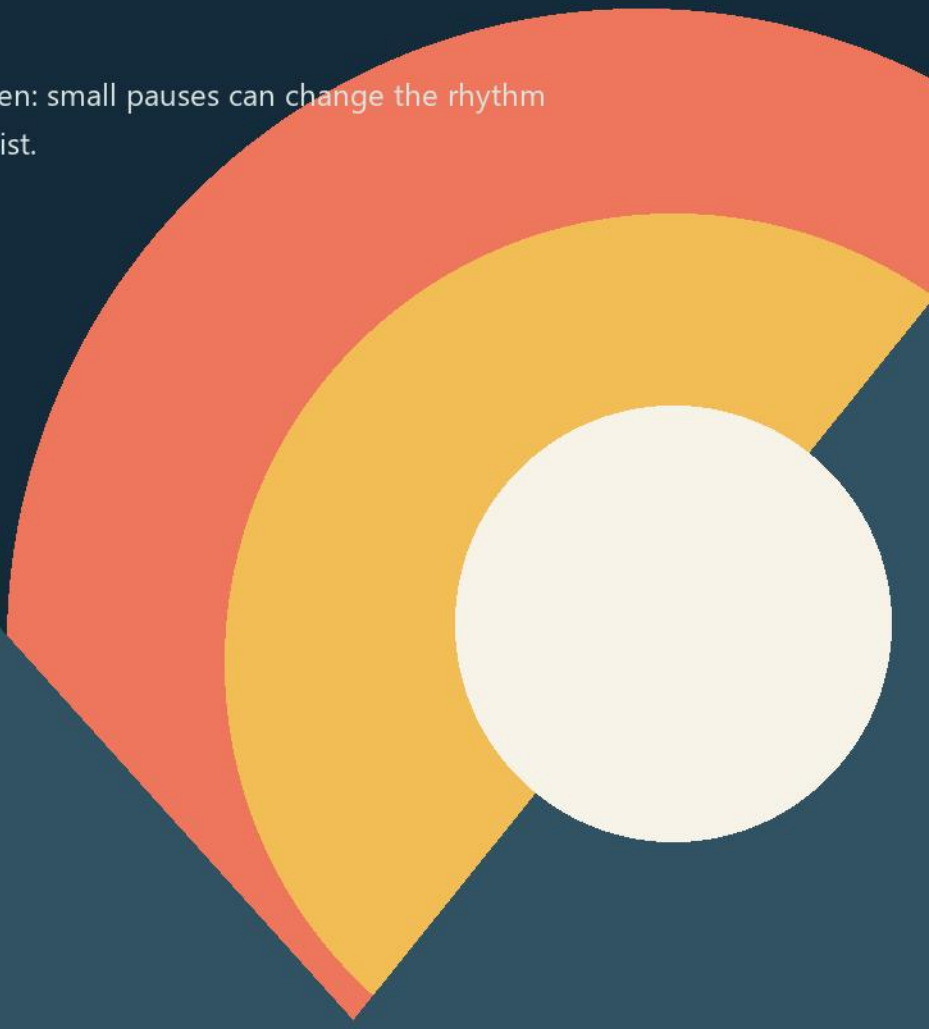

TRY THIS

Pick one idea. Make it yours. Leave time to pause.

03 / NOTICE

Take the scenic route

A park, a quiet side street, a public garden: small pauses can change the rhythm of a day. Bring a notebook, not a checklist.

A SIMPLE PLAN

- Choose one local stop.
- Walk a different street.
- Take a mindful pause.
- Share what you discovered.

04 / CONNECT

Meet the makers

Buy thoughtfully, learn how something is made, and support the independent places that give a neighbourhood its character.

PULL QUOTE

> “A good day is not measured by how much you fit in, but by what you notice.”

TRY THIS

Pick one idea. Make it yours. Leave time to pause.

FIELD NOTES

Go gently. Stay curious. Leave the place better than you found it.